John Meillon plays Henry Soames, Boston newsman, whose psychic "inner eye" makes him a horrified witness to a holocaust in the Dutch East Indies. Also featured are

Robin Hughes, J. G. Devlin, John Phillips and Rose Alda.

Content Solitude

Model fallout shelter exhibited at an AMA convention included an inlaid hoptscotch game to help the time pass, a 40 year calendar to keep track of the years going by and a map, perhaps to help the occupants find out where they are after all that time spent playing hoptscotch.

Congregation Studies Values of Prophecies

"Long before our time, 20th century events were recorded in Bible prophecy," declared Theodore Jaracz to 2544 of Jehovah's Witnesses assembled to hear the main address of a three day meet at Washington High School in Los Angeles.

"The apparent lack of appreciation of Bible prophecy in our day," said Leonard Oliff, presiding minister of the Torrance Congregation, "was accented by Jaracz when he said, While the Bible spotlight of prophecy is focused on this 20th century, the majority of mankind is not aware of it. Many modernist clergy claim the Bible is a piece of beautiful literature that has served antiquity but does not belong to a modern society."

DEFINITION Jaracz defined prophecy as "history written in advance, a foretelling of future events beyond the power of natural man."

In disclaiming that any human has the ability to privately interpret prophecy, he quoted what the Bible writer, Peter, was inspired to say in 2 Peter 2:20, 21 and added, "God is the Interpreter of prophecy and makes it known to his people to be studied and understood. We merely proclaim it."

Oliff further stated, "Jehovah's Witnesses are eager to share with the people in the community the things learned from this assembly, and will be making personal calls with the 51 new ministers who symbolized their dedication to do God's will by water baptism at this assembly. "We join with Mr. Jaracz in encouraging all to become students of Bible prophecy, to intently watch the sign of the times and recognize the prophecy's further fulfillments," he said.

Baptist Churches Sponsor Revival

A Baptist Tent Revival is scheduled to begin July 9. The tent will be located on Crenshaw and Pacific Coast Highway near the airport. The 50 by 100 feet tent will be erected next week.

The event will begin July 8 with the showing of the Billy Graham film "Shadow of the Boomerang." The film will be shown on that date at 7 p.m.

Seven Southern Baptist Churches will cooperate in the evangelistic event to provide 100 voices for the choir. Music will be directed by Dr. Joe Trussell.

Preacher for the two weeks July 9 to 23 will be Dr. O. Byron Richardson, who is revival evangelist for the Baptist General Convention of Texas. Richardson has conducted three revivals in local churches in recent years.

Churches cooperating are Anza Avenue Baptist; Crenshaw Baptist; Del Amo Baptist; Keystone Baptist of Torrance; First Baptist, Narbonne Avenue Baptist of Lomita and Temple Heights Baptists of San Pedro.

Who Needs It? A viennese doctor has invented a scientific drinking machine. Alcohol goes into a funnel in its top, causing scattered light bulbs to brighten and twinkle. After a few drinks, the lights go out. No information available as to whether the machine sings "Sweet Adeline" before it passes out.

FASHIONS SHOWN "Learning '61" will be devoted to dressmaking, tailoring, and fashion designing to illustrate Los Angeles' Trade Technical College curriculum Sunday, June 2, (10:30 to 11 a.m.) on KNXT, Channel 2.
